

A Shape Visit to the Johnson Museum

Madi and Max are at the Johnson Museum of Art!

They want to find all the shapes!

Max looks at Buddha

Seated Under The Naga

She sees a . . .

Circle

smooth

round

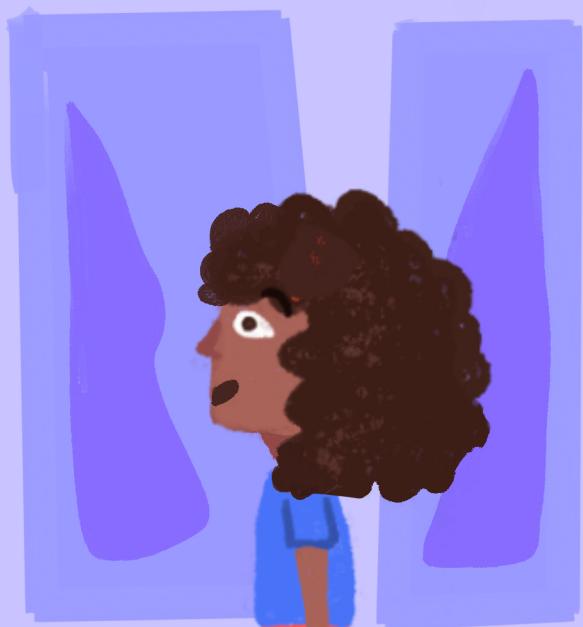

no corners

What are other circles?

Madi sees the Watchtower.

She sees a . . .

square

same length sides

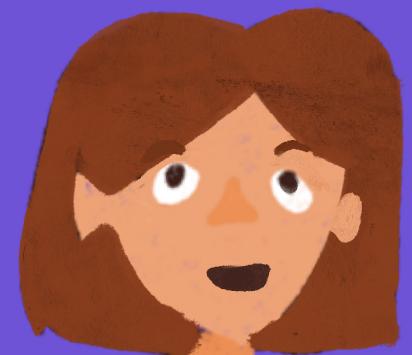

four corners

four sides

What are other squares?

Max looks at the Samurai.

She sees a . . .

Rectangle

two long sides

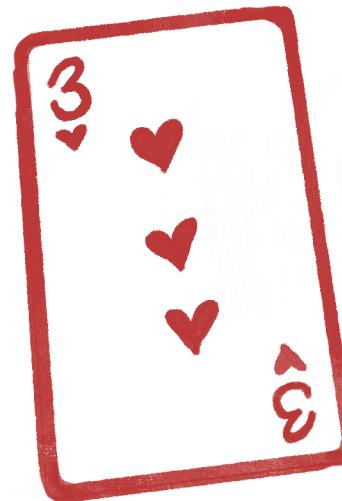

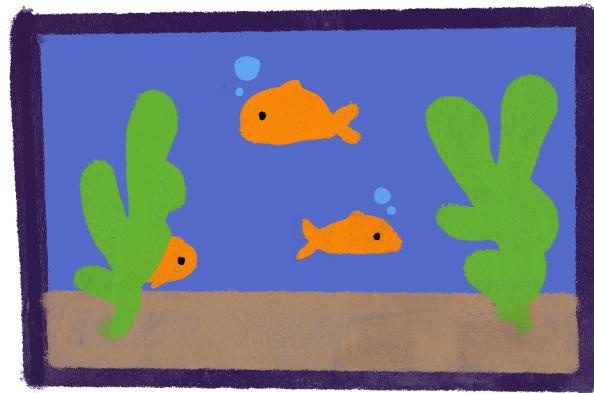

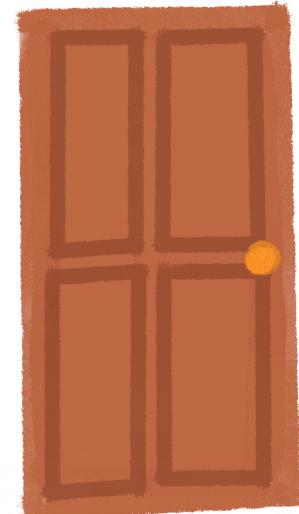

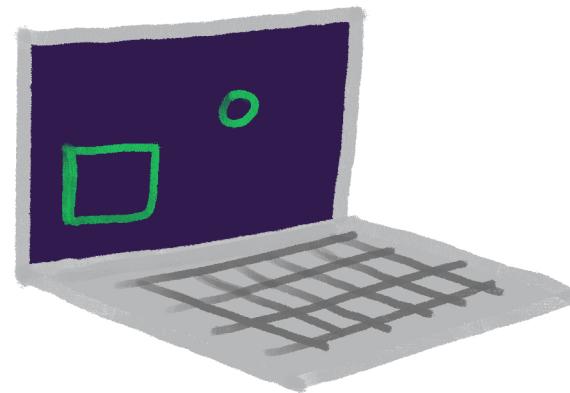

two short sides

four corners

What are other rectangles?

They see the Walking Man.

They see a . . .

Triangle

pointy

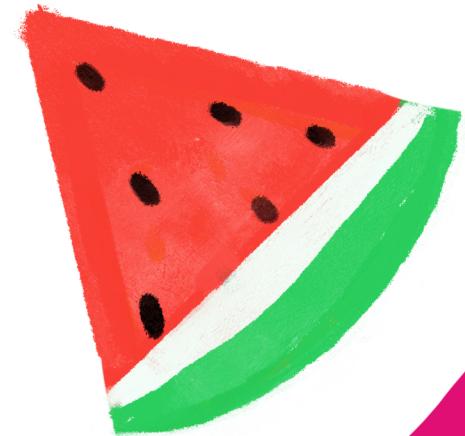

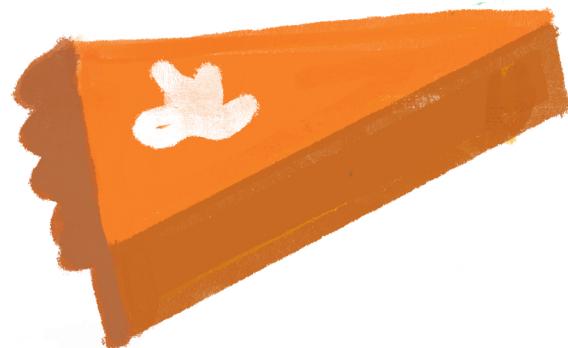

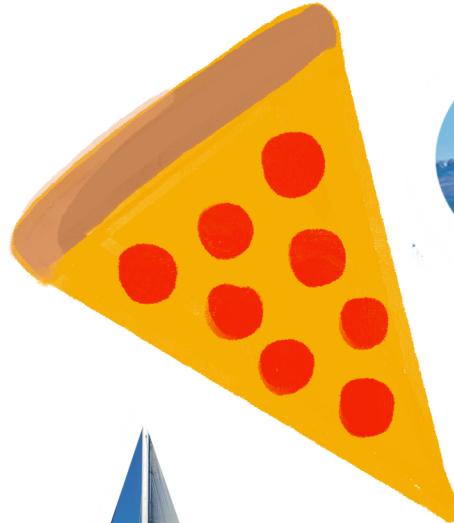

three corners

three sides

What are other triangles?

Max and Madi had fun finding all the shapes at the museum.

Circle

Square

Rectangle

Triangle

Now it's your turn for a shapes adventure!

Works Featured:

In Order of Appearance

Unidentified Artist, Buddha Seated Under the Naga, Thailand, Lopburi, 13th or 14th century. Gift of Alexander B. Griswold.

Unidentified Artist, Watchtower, China, Eastern Han Dynasty (206 BC-220 AD). Gift of Harry Lynch III.

Unidentified Artist, One partial suit of samurai armor, Japan, circa 1800. Gift of the Estate of the Konoshima Trust.

Giacometti, Alberto, L'Homme qui marche II (Walking Man II), 1960. Gift of Mrs. Percy Uris.

A Shape Visit to the Johnson Museum

Created by the Johnson Museum Education Department:

Written, illustrated and designed by Odessa Thompson '24, Education Intern at the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art, Cornell University 2022.

2022 Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art, Cornell University, All Rights Reserved.

ISBN: